Inconceivable

leah andreone

I know you can't imagine
Angels taking flight
I know you can't imagine
Your darkest hour lightYou might think it strange
But I know that you can fly
I know you don't believe
But there's heaven in your eyesAnd when you think you're not enough
Just know that I do
Even though it's inconceivable to youI know you can't imagine
You could heal the blind
I know you can't imagine
You could change my lifeYou don't seem to see
You're the miracle in me
I know you don't agree
But the world needs you to breatheAnd when you think you're not enough
Just know that I do
Even though it's inconceivable to youI can't imagine why
Your eyes don't make you smile
I can't imagine why
You don't see you're worth my whileAnd maybe you don't see it now
Still I know it's true
Even though it's inconceivable to youI know you can't imagine
Standing on the moon
I know you can't imagine
This song's about youPlease don't go away
Take a step it'd be too far
I'm not overreacting
I just see things as they areAnd when you think you're not enough
Just know that I do
Even though it's inconceivable to you
Even though it's inconceivable to youAnd when you think you're not enough
Just know that I do
Even though it's inconceivable to you
Even though it's inconceivable to you
Even though it's inconceivable to you
