Hush Hush

Alexis Jordan

Everybody knows, everybody knows that
I'm coming for you, tough, I'm coming for you, tough
Everybody knows, everybody knows that
I'm coming for you, tough, I'm coming for you, toughAre you scared, don't you run now, welcome to the fun house
Tossed my emotions, so, here's the commotion, oh
Feels good to hold the knife, cut me out just right
Revenge and a kiss, 'cause, baby, I'm a snitchHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormEverybody knows, everybody knows that
I'm coming for you, tough, I'm coming for you, tough
Everybody knows, everybody knows that
I'm coming for you, tough, I'm coming for you, toughYou won't get saved, hold your breath, it's okay
'Cause you're drowning today, I'm gonna shake it up
It's gonna be fun, I got a little something
Sure there'll be some pain, I'll be happy I cameHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormDon't you say one more thing to me
Won't you shut it up, you can't explainHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet stormHush, hush, hush you know I'm coming for you
Tough, tough, tough
I need your word in a rush, rush, rush
You better take cover this quiet storm
