

Both Hands In the Fire

Red Rockers

I'm in so deep?I can't get out
But I want it, to be this way
I expect myself to be a soldier
All lined up, across the border

I wonder why?
Cause I've got both hands in the fire
Yeah, I've got both hands in the fire

Oh no.

I can feel the heat?my fingers melting
The hotter it gets?the more I get used to it
I want to hear the world's reply
The less I hear?the flames get higher

And, I wonder why?
Cause I've got both hands in the fire
Yeah, I've got both hands in the fire

Oh no.

And I'm burning up?

Now, I've watched the men,
try to dive head first
There's something about them
That's got the balls to win

We can talk and talk and cry and cry
We can't sit back, we have tried

And, I wonder why?
Cause I've got both hands in the fire
Yeah, I've got both hands in the fire
I said, I've got both hands in the fire
Yeah, I've got both hands in the fire

Oh no.

I?M BURNING UUUUUUUUUP!!!
