Walking Around

Naked Aggression

Walkin' arround town, just a wanderin' around,
Getting a load off my mind.
Feeling kinda mad, feeling kinda sad,
I just can't shake it sometimes
I always get this feeling. it's hard to stay in control.
Inside my mind is reeling.
I need to do something I gotta get up an go!Gotta get myself together and get organized,
Even thought that might be hard.
Don't wanna waste my life feeling sorry for myself,
That's such a boring way to spend time.
I'm gonna take my chances so I'll have no regrets.
I'm gonna live my own life and do what I want
With what time I have left.
