

A-Ok

Face to Face

You think that Im invincible, its going to pull me down
You think that Im invisible, its going to pull me down
Its somewhere I dont want to go, its okay You think Im indestructible, its going to pull me down
You think that Im a miracle, its going to pull me down
To somewhere I dont want to go, its okay I dont know what you want from me
But its probably already gone
I dont care what you think of me
Your opinion means nothing at all Dont say Im okay, Im not okay
Dont say Im not trying, trying to do whats right
Now its time to walk away I dont know what you want from me
But its probably already gone
I dont care what you think of me
Your opinion means nothing at all Dont say Im okay, Im not okay
