

One Thing

Tenth Avenue North

You don't really know what you need
And you've got nothing
You don't really know what you believe
And you've been broken
You don't really know what you treasure now
Till it all comes crashing down
I can see so clearly now If I've got nothing but You
I'll still have everything I need
You're the one thing I can't loose
When I've run to the end of me
Everything I though I lost
I found it all in You, my God
You're the one thing, one thing
One thing, one thing I need All of the want and all the plans
I've been chasing
All of the dreams in my heart
You can take them
Cuz all of the beauty starts to fade
In a light of just one place
I can see so clearly now If I've got nothing but You
I'll still have everything I need
You're the one thing I can't loose
When I've run to the end of me
Everything I though I lost
I found it all in You, my God
You're the one thing, one thing
One thing My soul will cry
This one thing I know
You will only satisfy If I've got nothing but You
I'll still have everything I need
You're the one thing I can't loose
When I've run to the end of me Everything I though I lost
I found it all in You, my God
You're the one thing, one thing
One thing, one thing I need The one thing I need

Songwriters

Michael Morgan Donehey, Jason Ingram Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>