Silverstream

Rome

Pluck my silver stream
From your eye and thigh
And breathe in

And I can see through me
I can see through me

Pluck
My silver stream
From your eye and thigh
And breathe in

Tuck
That feeling in
As you gather up your clothes
This hotel's been too kind
Turn me blind, and a blind eye to my wretched kind
I'm no mystery to you no more
On this hollow floor

Pluck
My silver stream
From your eye and thigh
And breathe in

Tuck
(I can see through you)
That feeling in
(I can see through you)
As you pluck
My silver stream

And pluck
(I can see through you)
My silver stream
(I can see through you)
From your eye and thigh
And breathe in

Tuck

(I can see through you)
That feeling in
(I can see through you)
As you pluck
My silver stream
