Aavikko

Wash over me like rain
Can't get the hold on it
Just stay for one more day

But your eyes tell me you're afraid
Let me proof that I can be
In a life we both believe
No timidity past

Mark my words babe and take my hand

Mark my words babe and take my hand
Well for a moment all the words are spoken and I feel alone
Ga ga ga, well I love you

Are you falling are you healing, are breaking, leaving in a minute
Well I hate you too
Some words is to be said
The taste of summer days

Reminds me of a tale

Freeze dried five hours of pain

Drops from her eyes now bring the rain
Let me proof that I can be
In a life we both believe
No timidity past

Mark my words babe and take my hand

Mark my words and just take my hand
Well for a moment all the words are spoken and I feel alone
Ga ga ga, well I love you

Are you falling are you healing, are breaking, leaving in a minute
Well I hate you too
Are you falling are you healing, are breaking, leaving in a minute
Well I hate you too
Some words is to be said
