

Draconian Love

Avantasia

You shed draconian love you shed draconian You shed draconian love you shed draconian Welcome to your way seemingly endless
as I take your wings The world through kaleidoscope eyes untill you unlearn
what you keep inside those innocent eyes refracting the light
for a never-sang song till the cold horizon gonna wait its turn wait its turn no more tell me how should I embrace
Like roses we'll wither on the vine why should I bide my time
If it flies away sometime Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Leaving me down here
Lost in the waves Hey, hey, hey
When will God explain
This Draconian love You shed draconian love
You shed draconian love Where do I go?
Where are you now?
Selling me love
Through fiery rain, Angel When will you explain this Draconian love
It's all Draconian love
It's all Draconian Infiltrate us with mercy
Bait us with sympathy
Blind us with love We're lost in the clouds walking by
But some of us rain
Into what they feel Like a grain of nothing
I feel cast to the wind
Of a feeling good breeze Of an onward cause
Of an unborn will
Whatever that may mean tell me how should I embrace
Like roses we'll wither on the vine why should I bide my time
If it flies away sometime Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Leaving me down here
Lost in the waves Hey, hey, hey
When will God explain
This Draconian love You shed draconian love

You shed draconian love Where do I go?
Where are you now?
Selling me love
Through fiery rain, Angel When will you explain this Draconian love
It's all Draconian love
It's all Draconian Aspiration and tears
Heartache and fears Draconian love
You shed draconian love Unrequited love
Down on my knees Draconian love
It's all draconian Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Leaving me down here
Lost in the waves?
Will you explain
this draconian love? Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Leaving me down here
Lost in the waves Hey, hey, hey
When will God explain
This Draconian love You shed draconian love
You shed draconian love Where do I go?
Where are you now?
Selling me love
Through fiery rain Hey, hey, hey
Will you explain
this draconian love? It's all Draconian love
It's all draconian Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Leaving me down here
Lost in the waves? Hey, hey, hey
When will God explain
This Draconian love You shed draconian love
You shed draconian love Where do I go?
Where are you now?
Selling me love
Through fiery rain
