Wicked Rain

Los Lobos

Rain, rain, rain, a wicked rain falling on the town
Down, down, down, pouring down upon the night
Well, there's just one chance in a million
That someday we'll make it out aliveRain, rain, rain, an evil rain falling all the time
Sun, sun, sun, sun don't ever want to shine
Well, there'll be no light in the morning
Till some peace at last we findLike travelers in the darkness can't see our way
Trying hard to make it through another dayFather, father, father, why do you let your sons go astray?
Brother, brother, brother, why must we go on this way?
Well, there's a storm off in the distance
And it looks like it's here to stayRain, rain, rain, an evil rain falling from the sky
Sun, sun, sun, sun don't ever want to shineRain, rain, rain, wicked rain
Rain, rain, rain, evil rain
Rain, rain, rain, sun, sun, sunRain, rain, rain, wicked rain
Wicked rain, wicked rain
Wicked rain, wicked rain
