

Wicked Rain

Los Lobos

Rain, rain, rain, a wicked rain falling on the town
Down, down, down, pouring down upon the night
Well, there's just one chance in a million
That someday we'll make it out alive
Rain, rain, rain, an evil rain falling all the time
Sun, sun, sun, sun don't ever want to shine
Well, there'll be no light in the morning
Till some peace at last we find
Like travelers in the darkness can't see our way
Trying hard to make it through another day
Father, father, father, why do you let your sons go astray?
Brother, brother, brother, why must we go on this way?
Well, there's a storm off in the distance
And it looks like it's here to stay
Rain, rain, rain, an evil rain falling from the sky
Sun, sun, sun, sun don't ever want to shine
Rain, rain, rain, wicked rain
Rain, rain, rain, evil rain
Rain, rain, rain, sun, sun, sun
Rain, rain, rain, wicked rain
Wicked rain, wicked rain
Wicked rain, wicked rain
