Someday I'll give to you...
Someday I'll give to you my love forever.
Someday when things have changed...
Someday I'll speak my mind to you forever.Only my eyes could tell her what I planned to give her.
Only my eyes could tell it
will never be the same...
will never be the same.Someday I know I'll be...
trapped in this wild scene and stay forever.
Be careful what you keep... when you're in ankle deep and fly forever.Only my eyes could tell her
what I planned to give her.
Only my eyes could tell it
will never be the same...
will never be the same.Dance in the morning.
Tell me where we should go.
In the air above you.Dance in the morning.
When there's nowhere to go.
Will it ever come true?Dance in the morning.
Tell me where we should go.
In the air above you.Dance in the morning.
When there's nowhere to go.
Will it ever come true?Only my eyes could tell her
what I planned to give her.
Only my eyes could tell it
will never be the same...
will never be the same.Race away was all we had to do.
(We'll never be the same...)
In the end we changed and had to move.
(We'll never be the same...)
Moving onto dreams that might come true
(We'll never be the same...)
Break away was all we had to do.
(We'll never be the same...)
