Just a Kid

Dogbreth

I donâ€™t know where Iâ€™d be now
Without you to show me how to keep trying Silently guiding, never knew you were Never knew you were, never knew you were
No you never knew you were
And I wish I could show you
How much I owe you
Ooohhh, ooohhh
With everything I do, with everything I do

Sometimes I kid myself and tell myself Iâ€™m getting wiser
Sometimes I kid myself and tell myself Iâ€™m a songwriter
But then I snap out of it
And see that Iâ€™m still just a kid
Sometimes your memory reaches you like arms reaching down
Screws me up and picks me up off the ground
And tells me to keep trying
Youâ€™re absently guiding

And I wish I could show you
How much I owe you
Ooohhh
With everything I do, with everything I do, with everything I do
