

Let Go Of The Rope

Steve Azar

Aww, yeah
Let go of the rope
I wanna hold on but I gotta let go of the rope
It's all in my hands but my heart keeps telling me no Let go of the rope Don't wanna play tug of war no more even out the score
This blistered soul needs time to mend Slippin & slidin just tryin to get a better grip Let go of the rope
I wanna hold on but I gotta let go of the rope It's all in my hands but my heart keeps tellin me no, no Let go of the rope Crossing this line that's been drawn in the sand over & over & back over again Diggin in deeper with all the strength I got left Aww, let go of the rope Oh, I gotta let go I know Let go of the rope Oh, I wanna hold on but I gotta let go of the rope It's all in my hands but my heart keeps telling me no, no, no Just lay it down Walk away
Leave it alone no, no Yeah, let go of the rope
mmmmm
