

Been A Long Time

Black Label Society

The death, the lies, in lies the truth
All that it is, what was, ain't trueI was down but now I can see
The pain, the hurt, the miseryOh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next timeThis cross you bare, I've come to carry for you
This cross you bare, I've come to break it in twoI was down but now I can see
The pain, the hurt, the miseryOh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next timeOh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next timeOh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
