

Paradise

Dylan LeBlanc

go down to st. augustine or a little further south drive the california coast build a house in a little town why should i if you're not here and i don't want to anyhow cause paradise is a lonely place in the here and nowwell i'd walked the world around with you from sea to shining sea i saw you wake till we got old from the day you married me and i buried you like you asked me to in your long white wedding gown now paradise is a lonely place in the here and now i hope when i'm dead and gone if it's not too late i will see you standing there at some pearly gate where the bitter ended rivers of life won't drag us down paradise is a the only place in the here and nowwe'll hold hands and walk together on that forever shore when i reach your smile i'll feel better cause a memory is too far but i'll see you in another life where tomorrow's never found paradise is the only place in the here and now paradise is the only place in the here and now
