Stars

Ulrich Schnauss

Here beginning for the end
When it's all gone
Why should I pretend

Oh, these days
Will never come back
Do you remember
Or did you forget?

Losing with every step I take
Losing with every move I make
Turn into everything I hate
Losing with every move I make

Looking at the stars, must be a reason
Why our hopes feel lost in the glow
[Unverified] for every season

Looking at the stars
See that they move on
Because I'm not sure
If you miss me, I move on
I move on, carry on
