

Brand New Bow

Toby Keith

Thought I'd call you up
See if you had celebrated
Day you were born
It's a little belated
But age is just a number
It's really over-rated to me
Yeah, November third
That's a day I remember
'Cuz it' thirty seven days
After mine in September
You'd thought I forgot
'Cuz here it is December again
Oh, happy birthday, baby, wanna to see you tonight
I got your present waitin', I wanna do it right

I ain't got enough money for a big diamond ring
Let's tie a brand new bow around the same old thing
Yeah
Now blow
Out your candles
Yeah, happy birthday, baby, wanna to see you tonight
I got your present waitin' and I wanna do it right
I ain't got enough money for a big diamond ring
Let's tie a brand new bow 'round the same old thing
It'd be cool if we could make an ending
Somewhere
