Breathe

Feeling Left Out

no holes in the roof the rain can't make it's way in we're sittin' down you can lay back down keep your head down they'll think we're asleep although you're there because i'll still feel you breatheit's raining it's pourin everyone's snoring drive through the night i swear we're almost oldkeep your head down they'll think we're asleep although you're there because i'll still feel you breathewiper plates go through the rain engine helps and keeps us always to one side across the pavement
