

Melodie (1995 Anthology Version)

Michael Jackson

I woke up yesterday
Knowing I was lost and passed away
I felt my destiny were sad the rain
Going know her way There's sound of the melody
I got song, you enchanted me
And the sound of your voice
Make my heart keep turn to the music
Got to love that filled my mind Melodie, you're my symphony
All the song to me
You're my only Melodie, you're my everything
Make me wanna sing
For you only, oh, oh
(I see you love me) The long and winding road
Is much shorter now that you're here with me
But when you lend my mind
Have an answer, now love don't hold me All the girls have brighten now
And the darkness is lighter now
Is my mind I can hear, the band start to play
Hello tomorrow, goodbye you today Melodie, you're my symphony
All the song to me
You're my only Melodie, you're my everything
Make me wanna sing
For you only Beautiful morning, oh happy day
And you know there's music to my ears
Every word that you say Melodie, you're my symphony
All the song to me
You're my only Melodie, you're my everything
Make me wanna sing
For you only
