Court to Love

Clannad

Coming into certain lines of justice
A venue for a Venus and Eve
Take the balance of their beauty between them
A vain look can deceiveI'm only paying court to love
As deep as you can find
On the blind side of your heart
Safe inside your mindWhen the length of days are dawning, it feels right
In the light of understanding
There's always something bound to be a warning
When it's infinite, it never meetsI'm only paying court to love
As deep as you could wish to find
On the blind side of your heart
Safe inside your mindI'm only paying court to love
As deep as you could wish to find
On the blind side of your heart
Safe inside your mindI'm only paying court to love
As deep as you could wish to find
On the blind side of your heart
Safe inside, safe inside your mindCourt to love
Court to love
