Monday

Blaudzun

Monday you'll be on your own
When the bars come out to play
Monday morning silver tongues
The sounds of yesterday
Will no longer hurt I deem
Forget the sorrow melody
You will get high on your lows
That's the joy of trampolines
Monday you're at lines
Monday you're at lines
Monday you'll be fine
Monday you'll be on your own
When the bars come out to play
Monday morning combat zone
First to find the cat away
Monday you're at lines
Monday you're at lines
Monday you'll be fine [x2]
