

Monday

Blaudzun

Monday you'll be on your own
When the bars come out to play
Monday morning silver tongues
 The sounds of yesterday
 Will no longer hurt I deem
 Forget the sorrow melody
You will get high on your lows
 That's the joy of trampolines
 Monday you're at lines
 Monday you're at lines
 Monday you'll be fine
Monday you'll be on your own
When the bars come out to play
Monday morning combat zone
 First to find the cat away
 Monday you're at lines
 Monday you're at lines
 Monday you'll be fine [x2]
