

No Attention

Soundgarden

I've got war on my mind, blood on my hands
And love on my head
So open your hands, open your mouth
Let it be said You know I've got it made in my mind
Don't waste my time, it's not going to change
So say what you want, spit it out loud
Into my face Now I'll pay no attention
No attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention They're gonna tell you where to walk
When to smile and just what to say
They say, have your own fall, make your own mind
But don't make no waves And if you got a handful of change
Don't throw it away it's gonna come
So say what you want, suck all my lies
Suck on my brain And I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention I'll pay no attention, no attention
No attention, no attention
No attention, no attention No attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
No attention
I'll pay no attention
No attention I'll pay no attention
No attention
No attention
No attention
No attention
No attention
No attention

No attention They're gonna tell you where to walk

When to smile and just what to say
They say, have your own fall, make your own mind
But don't make no waves And if you got a handful of change
Throw it away it's gonna come
So say what you want, suck all my lies
Suck on my brain And I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
I'll pay no attention
