Come Take Me Now

Saigon Kick

Time, Im dreamin' it all away, I cant find
The words to say but somehow I feel its over
God, Im down on my knees to pray, life slowly
Fades away, it just seems to last foreverHome, take me to the place, its warm
And Im not afraid, You shelter me from the rainLord, come take me now, I feel
That its over, I feel that it's over
Lord, come take me now, I feel
That its over, I feel that it's overLost, out here without a trace
Feeling all the pain, wondering if Im insane
So, you think that yesterday is gone away, you wish
It was here to stay, it just doesn't seem the sameLord, come take me now, I feel
That its over, I feel that it's over
Lord, come take me now, I feel
That its over, I feel that it's overLord, come take me now, I feel
That its over, I feel that it's over
Lord, come take me now, I feel
That its over, I feel that it's overLord, come take me now, come take me now
Come take me now, Lord, come take me now
Come take me now, come take me now
Lord, come take me now, come take me now
