Space Walk

Upsidedown Cat

"The hatch is coming open. Okay. It's open."
"Verified."
"I'm moving outside. Okay, I'm letting go."
"Copy that."
"I'm starting to drift away. It really is dark out here."
"How am I doing?"
"You're doing fine."
"I'm beginning to see a uh, point of light on the horizon.
It's, uhh, getting larger.
I'm... I'm getting some breakout oscillations. Oh, it's coming quicker now. It's really going. Any second now.
Here we go. And uh, woah! Heh heh. Woo boy! That really is something. Oh, that's tremendous. Well that,
that's just uh, beautiful."

"Beautiful, beautiful, just beautiful"

"Zero G's, I don't mind"
"And it looks good to me"
"Reading you loud and clear"
"Feel like a million dollars"
"Roger"
"You are going to descent"
"That's decent"
"I can almost make out the surface"
"Looking great, here we go"
