Still Crazy After All These Years

Paul Simon

I met my old lover on the street last night
She seemed so glad to see me, I just smiled
And we talked about some old times
And we drank ourselves some beersStill crazy after all these years
Still crazy after all these yearsI'm not the kind of man who tends to socialize
I seem to lean on old familiar ways
And I ain't no fool for love songs
That whisper in my earsStill crazy after all these years
Still crazy after all these yearsFour in the morning, crapped out, yawning
Longing my life away
I'll never worry, why should l?
It's all gonna fadeNow, I sit by my window and I watch the cars
I fear I'll do some damage one fine day
But I would not be convicted
By jury of my peersStill crazy after all these years
Oh, still crazy, still crazy
Still crazy after all these years
