

Damage

Anthony B

INTRO:

I and I defend the down pressed is a muss
In a need I and I nuh fight nor fuss
Co' everything them dem say them rightful own belong to us
My fuddah done tell I and I everything shall fall to I and I is a muss
So Babylon set the livity, everyday anudda one bite the duss

My LawdCHORUS:

You dont have to say you are sorry
For all the wrongs that you have done
I dont wanna hear a sad story
Cuz the damage already done

Oh the damage already doneVERSE 1:

Broken bones and wounds need tender repair
Hang on brother man dont despair (Hold on)

Although we forgive

Seven times seven

Still the damage already done

So much damage already done

Stop and listen a while to meditation style

Going straight to your mind through ya wicked and wile

Only way you can deal with this vibes is to free up ya soul and mind

Yagga Yagga Yagga Yagga YoiCHORUS:

You dont have to say you are sorry

For all the wrongs that you have done

I dont wanna hear a sad story

Cuz the damage already done

Oh the damage already doneVERSE 2:

Everybody wants their peace of mind

Trying to justify how they deal with mankind

Sometimes I wonder how they sleep at night time

When all the damage already done

Oh the damage already done

Stop and listen a while to meditation style

Going straight to your mind through ya wicked and wile

Only way you can deal with this vibes is to free up ya soul and mind

Yagga Yagga Yagga Yagga YoiCHORUS:

You dont have to say you are sorry

For all the wrongs that you have done

I dont wanna hear a sad story

Cuz the damage already done
Oh the damage already done
