Couch the Comfort

STAMPEAD

couch the comfort and bite the pain everybody play insane
thereâ€™s chaos at the zoo wild wild tigers come for you and we can whip our way to safety once again

until the children are all safe
until the children are all safe

but bloods been drawn down by the bodega store thereâ€™s zebras and lions and the lions eat the zebras over 12 dollars and mother hollars juan is gone my eldest sons been eaten yes my eldest sons been eaten lions run from the blue guns rob the poor to build the funds and theyâ€™re running free just a little bit more too may antelope lose the war so we couch the comfort and bite the pain everybody play insane

and we can whip our way to safety

until the children all learn
to be insane too
