Stone Cold Killer

Winger

She's in your dreams and sees you coming
She's out of sight but knows your hunting
Once her bites have gone through ya
Her eyes shoot like a 44
Cold as ice forevermore
First she'll own your heart then your soul
She'll never let you go
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
She kills so good your dying for some more
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
Your in the dead zone
Dressed to kill in her hot pink leather
She'll roll you over if you know your gonna blow
Once her laugh has gone through ya
A frozen soul a heart of stone
You feel her will down to the bone

Her diamonds cut so deep don't even known
(She'll never let you go)
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
She kills so good your dying for some more
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
Your in the dead zone
Her eyes shoot like a 44
Cold as ice forevermore
First she'll own your heart then your soul
She'll never let you go
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
She kills so good your dying for some more
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
She kills so good she'll have you diggin' up your bones
Now your messin' with the stone cold killer
Your in the dead zone
