

Your Woman

Karmah

Before you came I thought every man was the same

 Thinkin' to myself that it's a dog gone shame

Then when we first met I didn't quite know what to expect

But we've been together ever since and I have no regrets

 You mean so much to me

 I'm so happy to be your woman

 Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your woman

 You and me somehow connected spiritually

 Connected mentally, connected physically

 And so I believe all the obstacles that we've

Encountered along the way makes us strong today

 You mean so much to me

 I'm so happy to be your woman

 Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your woman

 Many days I feared I would end up all alone

 Never finding a love I can call my own

But then you came along and swept me off of my feat

 And for the first time in my life I feel complete

 You mean so much to me

 I'm so happy to be your woman

 Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your woman

 You mean so much to me

 I'm so happy to be your woman

 Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your woman

 You mean so much to me

 I'm so happy to be your woman

 Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your woman
