The Fold

Idle Sons

We're at the climax now, it's no surprise this is where you back down
I've heard the stories, this is where you come up short
It's not really a big deal, it's not really a big deal
You just threw it all away
You've got your shades shut tight, but you left the door wide open
And you know it's everything you wanted but you set yourself apart
No fingers need be pointed, you put yourself where you are
Did it fold? Did it fold?
For every action there's a consequence
So, just keep a distance, 'cause it's time you sent this one out
It is really a big deal, yes it is, a really big deal
You just threw it all away
You've got your shades shut tight, but you left the door wide open
And you know it's everything you wanted but you set yourself apart
No fingers need be pointed, you put yourself where you are
Did it fold? Did it fold?
Did you get your lies straight? 'Cause you've been hit with reality
Where you could call the fate, the trust doesn't come with a guarantee
Who you gonna call when there's no one left around?
Who you gonna call when there's no one left around?
It's everything you wanted, but you set yourself apart
No fingers need be pointed
You put yourself where you are
Did it fold? Did it fold?
Did it fold? Did it fold? Just watch it unfold
Did it fold? Did it fold? Just watch it unfold
It's everything you wanted
But you put yourself where you are
