

It Doesn't Hurt

Katie Thompson

I know your good
I know your right
I know you mean the best
Everytime you stop by
Don't know what to say
Or know how to act
Cause I'm still moved by you
Cause you just have to ask

No it doesn't hurt
Unless i walk
I don't feel pain
Unless i try to talk
I don't even cry
Unless i open my eyes
I don't need to kick or scream or curse
No, it doesn't hurt

You don't have to call
To make sure I'm up
Cause I'm still wide awake
Cause I'm still lost in shock
I know your concerned
I know your just sick
And i know you'd feel better
If i were over it

No it doesn't hurt
Unless i walk
I don't feel pain
Unless i try to talk
I don't even cry
Unless i open my eyes
I don't need to kick or scream or curse
No, it doesn't hurt

I am wind
I am the sand
I am scared
I am a woman

And I'm fine
Cause i deserve
The time to feel hurt

I know your good
I know your freaked
And i know its safer if
Would you just let me be
So what will you say
That you've haven't said
The question you asked me just Makes me feel better you left

No, it doesn't hurt
Unless i move
I don't feel anything
Unless i think of you
I don't even cry
Unless i open my eyes
I don't need to kick, or scream

No it doesn't hurt
Unless i walk
I don't feel anything
Unless i try to talk
I don't even cry
Unless i open my eyes
I don't need kick or scream or curse
Noo,ooo, oo

It doesn't.....
Hurt
