

My Fantasy

Miles Kane

When I turn to my favourite hideaway
My hands and lip will always be the same
Only half the plan Once I thought that I was over you
Now you're back and I'm falling like a fool
You know the one I am I'm ridiculed 'bout my fantasy
I shared you in insanity
My eagerness comes untangled,
I can't handle you If he stays, we'll be thrilled
Keeping up with you
If he stays, we'll be thrilled
Keeping up with you I come 'round a roundness bunch of keys
So let me in cause I'm about to freeze
With my jealousy
I'm trying hard to persuade myself
That you aren't everything I need
But my tricks are wean I'm ridiculed 'bout my fantasy
I shared you in insanity
My eagerness comes untangled,
I can't handle you If he stays, we'll be thrilled
Keeping up with you
If he stays, we'll be thrilled
Keeping up with you Oh darling, I'll be like before
Oh darling, I 'll be like before
Before...
