

Rust (Midland Remix)

Akase

This home is overrun
We payed for it with rust
Why so much harm is done
And the cause so often lost Pick me up, that memory
Take it on the road
You told me I was evergreen
You thought I could be sold Pick me up, that memory
Take it on the road
You told me I was evergreen
You thought I could be sold
Pick me up, that memory
Take it on the road
You told me I was evergreen
You thought I could be sold Pick me up, that memory
Take it on the road
You told me I was evergreen
You thought I could be sold Another day of my life has gone home
Another day of my life has turned to dust
Another day of my life has gone home
Another day of my life has turned to rust
Another day of my life has gone home
Another day of my life has turned to dust
Another day of my life has gone home
Another day of my life has turned to rust
