Real Girl

Social Code

If I had one chance to
Begin my life again
I wouldn't make no changes
Now or way back when, yeahAnd if everything turns out
The way I hope it goes
But I can't wait to find out
What it is that God knowsBut I don't wanna think about
What's gonna come around for me
I'll just take it day by day
'Cause it's the only way
To be the best that I can beI never pretend to be something I'm not
You get what you see when you see what I got
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl
I know exactly where I standAnd all I can do is be true to myself
I don't need permission from nobody else
'Cause this is the real world, I'm not a little girl
I know exactly who I amAnd nothing's ever perfect
There's no guarantee
And if I knew the answers
It would put my mind at easeSo I'll just keep on going
The way I've gone so far
And maybe I'll end up
Tryin' to catch a fallin' star, yeahBut I don't wanna think about
What's gonna come around for me
I'll just take it day by day
'Cause it's the only way
To be the best that I can beI never pretend to be something I'm not
You get what you see when you see what I got
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl
I know exactly where I standAnd all I can do is be true to myself
I don't need permission from nobody else
'Cause this is the real world, I'm not a little girl
I know exactly who I amBaby this is who I am
Don't need you to understand
'Cause everything is right where it should be
And it won't be long 'til you know about me'Cause I don't give a *uck
Even when I'm out on luck
'Cause everything is just how it should be
And it won't be long 'til you know about meI never pretend to be something I'm not

You get what you see when you see what I got
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl
I know exactly where I standAnd all I can do is be true to myself
I don't need permission from nobody else
'Cause this is the real world, I'm not a little girl
I know exactly who I amI never pretend to be something I'm not
You get what you see when you see what I got
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl
I know exactly where I standAnd all I can do is be true to myself
I don't need permission from nobody else
'Cause this is the real world, I'm not a little girl
I know exactly who I am
I know exactly who I am
