Your Poison Throne

Nevermore

Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, riseWhat do you want from this world?
What do you want from this life?
What do you want from this season of sorrow
That's waiting to swallow the light?Rise, rise, from the poison
Rise, rise, to your throne
Rise, rise, from the poison
Rise, rise, to your throneYour poison throne is obscuring
The lesson required before the burningWhat do you want from humanity?
Are we hollow and stained?
Maybe we're all just useless
Or maybe we're all enslavedRise, rise, from the poison
Rise, rise, to your throne
Rise, rise, from the poison
Rise, rise, assume your throneYour poison throne is obscuring
The lesson required before the burningSit upon your poison throne
You little drone
Make your plans and shift your dreams
And smash them all to hellRise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, riseYour poison throne is obscuring
The lesson required before the burningSit upon your poison throne
You little drone
Make your plans and shift your dreams
And smash them all to hell
