

Farewell

Toxic Smile

I feel so strange in this world
everything is just too loud
hear me see me
like a ghost in a crowd
permanent observation constant harassment
what do you want from me?
hear me see me leave me to be

let me break my illusion
these chains in me
living life in confusion
close my eyes to see

life can be such a wonder listen to the sound secrets in silence
everywhere

when I listen to the world and close my eyes I see reality
my own projections will disappear

people see pictures copies of pictures in their mind but what you see is only projection troubles & wishes, problems & swishes, needs & fears what your eyes see are just points & stripes when listen to the people and close my eyes I feel reality

eavesdrop strongly & feel their souls
when i listen to the world and close my eyes
I see reality
my own projections will disappear at once you can not see me (eavesdrop)but you can hear me (eavesdrop) you have to listen carefully (eavesdrop) and you must shut your mouth to feel me

when I listen to the world and close my eyes

my own projections will disappear
when I listen to the people and close my eyes

eavesdrop hardly & feel their souls buy me, try me, you can rent me and I can guarantee that's the chance of your lifetime cause this will set you free come on taste me, feel the power all you want to be

get your free account
get your perfect life
get the newest car
get the hottest wife of course we accept credit cards you know it's not about the money we just want you to be happy we gonna take care of everything you can have it all

where is the sense in this please?
this is not my way
leave me alone to be here for you and me

I can't stand it
all these selfish lies they make me mad can I find a way to get this down release this pain everything inside my head strives to cry out for help maybe there is something more to see when I feel blind you can't see reality but you are a part of it I decide to close my eyes forever now now I live within all things and not just before them

I can feel existence now in me
my own illusions will disappear

If you see those images all are pictures of the world you can cut it from yourself and run it down
now see the difference everything a part of me have to listen carefully and feel

what is real
nothing is left inside me open and free
light in my heart will guide me
