

8th Wonder Of The World

Rogue Traders

So start the show, pick it up from the very beginning
At the part where the roof blows
Timber's falling as you're crawling
Through the forthcoming chapters
Better watch for the cameo So here we go, get on board if you were a believer
Take stock of your superstar shine
The best weapon you can take is a gun that won't fire
Use that heart like it's all mine Yes I'm feeling like the 8th Wonder of the world
Never ever better, 8th Wonder of the world
And if you think I'm loosing it just pretend it's wonderful
So wake up baby, 8th Wonder of the world So let it go, let it show if you're wanting salvation
At the end of a sunrise
Scream it louder by the hour babe it's all about power
Write it down 'cause it's all lies So end the show with a blow if you're keen to deliver
The kind of thrill that makes the temperature rise
Come learn a lesson a free amongst the falling debris
Look 'em dead right between the eyes So wake wake wake up
