

3fast

sioux falls

she played rock guitar she hated herself also she googled her name on the internet when she was feeling lonely i google my name too in midnight light in an empty room when it comes creeping in i watch south park then go to bed they'll up trodes to my head glue them to my skull till i look like a cyborg too bored to burn too fast miss you bad but i won't text back but i've seen birds collide got chills in fast 5 seen spiders levitate between my house and our worn down gate those things we don't talk about and when we say we are you know we aren't you aced your SAT that's pretty cool you're so fucking smart that guy seems like a fucking dick i can't understand just why i hate him maybe i'm a fucking dick and my judgements tend to come way too quick or maybe he's more talented than me and that makes me feel weird in an uncomfortable way i can't explain or maybe i'm just kinda into his girlfriend she's pretty and she has a nice voiceso i'm blank faced at a party looking for things to say and they keep making conversation but man i just can't expain won't someone take me away? i think you look just fine batting your lashes with a lazy eye i'm addicted to connected lives it's lonely when you've got no wi-fi those things we don't talk about
man i know you've got some fucked up thoughts but you broke her jaw when she broke your heart
