No Fun

Tgt

Wait till you get her body alone
Can't wait to say I told you so
I know if you say that it's good
Then it's real, real good
She do you things that she will be with it
'Specially since she knows that I know that you hit it
She know what she came here for
Plus she know what's mine is yoursIt ain't no fun if the homies can't have none
It ain't no fun if the homies can't have none
So let's share, share, share
We just share, share, shareI was ' I already know
'Cause honey so fly from head to toe
I did my thing as you should
And it was real, real good, oh, yeah
I know she never had to admit it
'Cause I won't tell, we won't tell
If we hit it
Don't get confused if she say she's yours
She's just one of them girls who want a lil' moreIt ain't no fun if the homies can't have none
It ain't no fun if the homies can't have none
So let's share, share, share
We just share, share, shareIf Problem gave a fuck about a bitch, he'd always be broke
I'm married to the money, I'll admit we eloped
I got throat and loopties, head up in Lucy
Plus I'm with TGT, come be a groupie
I'm just kidding, just come check out the proposition
The mission we hitting is written, peep up the competition
We fixing the fly high, the try thing
You sexy and I heard that pussy tasty as Thai waves
I'm thinking about dining, I put that on the script
Put my love in it then work it like a Jedi
Yes, I love, girl, pop it like a bitter
Cop to California just to dine and lay with herIt ain't no fun if the homies can't have none
It ain't no fun if the homies can't have none
So let's share, share, share
We just share, share, share
