Listening

Tonight Alive

(You listening? Are you listening?)Your eyes are closed
You're sleeping, are you dreaming?
Is this truth we know
Even the truth that all,
Were only breathingNaive minds for naive lives,
We don't have nine lives,
Open your eyes
The only chance you get,
Is here tonightWe all have hearts that beat
You're nodding, but are you listening?
Your lips move,
No one makes a sound
You listening?
Are you listening?Our eyes they cannot see,
They're wasted on people just like me
I've been blind for too long,
I thought I knew my right from wrong
But now it only seems letting myself down
Is it just in my dreams
You have to be true to yourself,
Then you'll seeBut we all have hearts that beat
You're nodding, but are you listening?
Your lips move,
No one makes a sound
You listening?
Are you listening?We all have to believe,
That its easier to dream, so
Your lips move,
No one makes a sound
You listening?
Are you listening?Its a little bit of give,
And a little bit of take
When you're looking for the mark you want to make
Its a little bit of give,
And a little bit of takeDon't be afraid no,
Don't be afraid no
It's just a part everyone gotta go through
Don't be afraid no,
Don't be afraid noWe all have hearts that beat

Your nodding, but are you listening?
Your lips move,
No one makes a sound
You listening? Are you listening?We've all learnt to believe,
That its easier to dream, so
Your lips move,
No one makes a soundYou listening? Are you listening?
You listening? Are you listening?
You listening? Are you listening?Are you, are you listening?
Are you, are you listening?You listening?
Are you listening?
