Someday

Passenger

There's somewhere I'd cross the sea
In a land that's lost and free
With my darling close to me
At least where I'm supposed to beWe're somewhere on the ocean breeze
And around the swinging trees
You're the only one for me
That is where I long to beSomeday
Someday yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You're somewhere out upon the beach
Out of range and out of reach
With the truest love of mine
Underneath the bluest sky
Yeah, far away from any time
We'll watch the lazy sun go down
With my sweetheart I lay down
That is where I will be foundSomeday
Someday yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
