

All Things Dead

Origin

An insatiable lustful frenzy
To expand far beyond the outermost shell
Assimilate to duplicate - (Procreate)
Begetting the core cell Mass production - (Mass consumption)
Devour inordinately outside of our means
Excessively manipulating - (Multiply)
Begetting the genetic seed All things dead Improve
Adapt
Overcome All things dead One to many
Back to none
The process of natural selection
Altered by the development of the mind
Genetic re-combinative mutation
Further narrowing the elite design Adhere to the dominant of the food chain
Or fall prey to the path of the maligned
Purification by survival of the fittest
Purge, Delete, Sanctify All subspecies fall to the wayside
An inherited design of the weak
Thus begins the hoarding of resources
Then the slaughtering of the meek A copious harvest of bloodshed
Displacing gluttony in contempt Crawling through desolate plains of ruins
Bled dry Scourge of the earth
Our ignorance, indifference, intolerance
In perpetual bliss
Oblivious to the damage
Cause and effect, spoils of the unfit Vanity
Incompetence
Overindulgence to taste
Laying to waste Malicious intent without condolence
To the error of our ways Complete depletion of sense
Dismay Delete a millenniums worth
Stranded
On a planet of disinterest Encased
To our indigenous world of doom That we destroyed
That we depleted
No one to blame
Our earth is killed
By living outside our means Human
Our own worst enemies Technological inevitability Devoid

Of all deadAll things dead
