

The Motivation (B Right)

Wale

Listen, I said we gonna have a good time tonight
This evening I'ma take it, take it in (be right)
Say what, its gon (be right)
Say what, its gon (be right)
Yo Wale (be right)
Take them there n*gga (be right)[Verse 1] You heard knowledge is power, now you got a masters to show you more massive then all them undergraduates you know you so pretentious, you love pretending like your love for learning could be applied to this shit the line for jobs is quite high, no isn't it his pride diminishes his pockets gone dry from the loans it was given him the world got cold overnight now didn't it?
Post graduation now just a spokesman for unemployed blacks who ain't sadly made it every day was a Saturday, shit ain't nothing changed since the sadder day, dig[Chorus] I know the world gets cold and the days get long and the sun don't shine and you mind just wonders why me, I say it cause we number one this why we get up in the morning
It's gon be alright (be right)
It's gon be alright (be right)
It's gon be alright (be right)
Believe that
It's gon be alright (be right)[Verse 2]
Get away, from it all he wanted to do suicide is easy, he got nothin to prove stuck in the pool, and its suckin him in its like a black hole, whole f*cking a bis come here to picture how he bumping his fist ain't that a bloody bitch, she wasn't a bloody bitch she laid, her body's gone tardy knowing you was getting by hardly knowing you can no longer party knowing you'll be followed by the bills like helotry you're falling slowly as you depart from your homies, earlier you got a baby boy or girl in there years back you believed that the world was fair but now its more declare you see the world is scary and now the present got you struggling but use tomorrow as a mull again, church[Chorus]

I know the world gets cold and the days get long
and the sun don't shine and you mind just wonders
this why we get up in the morning
It's gon be alright (be right)
It's gon be alright (be right)
It's gon be alright (be right)
Believe that
It's gon be alright (be right)[Verse 3]
Old man cheat, baby girl been through it and n*ggas ain't shit but you already knew that its cause of you, see, you let him do that you let him a sleaze you, but money tend to do that right, now you see it on care, now you finna cut your hair, you waiting to excel looking through your phone book, couldn't get a cell rebound slow you down but you gotta excel see, and now life seem hard still looking through your call log like "did he call yet?" you get your girl for something tight tomorrow you going to the club though, you soaking in sorrow heartbroken obviously, there's not tomorrow, when the present so powerful where the hour seem longer I know it hurt but life's not perfect happiness is hard sometimes you gotta work for it[Chorus]
I know the world gets cold and the days get long
and the sun don't shine and you mind just wonders
this why we get up in the morning
It's gon be alright (be right)
It's gon be alright (be right)
It's gon be alright (be right)
Believe that
It's gon be alright (be right)
