

Because Of You

Skunk Anansie

Because of you
the tears dead in my eyes they freeze until I'm blind the eyes a gift from you because of you the scratches on my face will never be erased by someone else's warmth because of you the winter feeds my heart while summer blows and burns my disappearing youth My loooooove is gone Never feel again
because of loooooove
I feeeeeel nothing because of you I'll never feel again the agony of pain will never bruise or start Because of you our passion tends to lead with all my lovers fate with pieces from my heart My loooooove is done never feeeeeel again
because of loooooove
I feeeeeeeel nothing Because of loooooove
I feeeeeel nothing because of you
because of you
because of looooooove
I feeeeeel nothing
because of looooooove
I feel nothing
