

Puttin' People On the Moon

Drive-By Truckers

Mary Alice had a baby and he looked just like I did
We got married on a Monday and I been working ever since
Every week down at the Ford plant but now they say they're shutting down
Goddamned Reagan in the White House and nobody gives a damn Double digit unemployment, TVA be shutting soon
While over there in Huntsville, they puttin' people on the moon
So I took to runnin' numbers for this man I used to know
And I sell a few narcotics and I sell a little blow
I ain't getting rich now but I'm gettin' more than by It's really tough to make a living but a man just got to try
If I died in Colbert county, would it make the evening news?
They too busy blowin' rockets, puttin' people on the moon
Mary Alice she quit askin' why I do the things I do
I ain't sayin' that she likes it, but what else I'm gonna do?
If I could solve the world's problems, I'd start with hers and mine
But they can put a man on the moon
And I'm struck in hitches scraping by Mary Alice got cancer just like everybody here
Seems like everyone I know is gettin' cancer every year
And we can't afford no insurance, I've been 10 years unemployed
So she didn't get no Chemo and our lives, it was destroyed
And nothin' ever changes, the cemetery gets more full
And now over there in Huntsville, even NASA's shut down too
Another joker in the White House, said a change was comin' 'round
But I'm workin' at the Walmart and Mary Alice in the ground
And all them politicians, they all lyin' sacks of shit
They say better days upon us but I'm sucking left hind tit
And the preacher on the TV says it ain't too late for me
But I bet he drives a Cadillac
And I'm broke with hungry mouths to feed
And I wish I was still an outlaw, was a better way of life
I could clothe and feed my family, still have time to love my pretty wife
If you say I'm being punished, ain't he got better things to do?
Turnin' mountains into oceans, puttin' people on the moon
Turnin' mountains into oceans puttin' people on the moon
