Didn't I Read You Right

Device

One Step too far
Dancing in the Dark
Think fast this time
Close enough to touch,
but then I hold back, stay cool...
but I'm watching you
Because your eyes they tell me
"Come and take the love that waits"

Into your arms I stumble
Never knowing where I fall
And why is it so strange if I say goodbye?

Didn't I read you, didn't I read you right?
Who would you like me to play?
Didn't I read you, didn't I read you right?

I know you see what I feel
Visions, madness
Ecstasy lies deep within your secrets
So many secrets
locked inside your capsule of Love
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

After the Sea of passion
washes you away from me
Tell me where is the shelter
from your burning eyes?

Didn't I read you, didn't I read you right?
Who would you like me to play?
Didn't I read you, didn't I read you right?
Between the Devil and the deep blue Sea
Unwritten promises we never keep

Didn't I read you, didn't I read you right?
Who would you like me to play?
Didn't I read you, didn't I read you right?
Between the Devil and the deep blue Sea

Unwritten promises we never keep
