

In Disarray

Pop Evil

Glass half-empty, fingers numb and cold
Nothing's easy when you've lost control
Each day a broken promise
Tide rolled the crooked line
True love but let's be honest
Can't trust a poisoned mind
Throw it away, throw it away, your world's in disarray
Carried away, carried away, oh what a mess you've made
The medicine you crave is overrated
Throw it away, throw it away
Bars gone sour in my bitter hand
Dancing dreams, why I've been left for dead
Each night an endless stumble
Crawl through the rabbit hole
Reach up and no one's with me
Burned every bridge I know
Throw it away, throw it away, your world's in disarray
Carried away, carried away, oh what a mess you've made
The medicine you crave is overrated
Throw it away, throw it away
The medicine you crave is overrated
Throw it away, throw it away, your world's in disarray
Carried away, carried away, oh what a mess you've made
The medicine you crave is overrated
Throw it away, throw it away
