Junkett

And when you slam
Down the hammer
Can you see it in your heart ?All of the rumors keeping me grounded
I never said, I never said that they were
Completely unfounded
So when you slam down the hammer
Can you see it in your heart?
Can you delve so low ?
And when you're standin' on my fingers
Can you see it in your heart? AahAnd when you try to break my spirit
It won't work
Because there's nothing
Left to break, anymore
All of the rumors
Keeping me grounded
I never said, I never said that they were
Completely unfoundedYou won't sleep until' the earth that wants me
Finally has me
Oh you've done it now
You won't rest until' the hearse that becomes me
Finally takes me
Oh you've done it now
And you won't smile until' my loving mouth
Is shut good and proper, foreverAll of the rumors
Keeping me grounded
I never said, I never said that they were
Completely unfounded
And all those lies
Written lies, twisted lies
Well, they weren't lies
They weren't lies, they weren't liesI never said, I never said
I could have mentioned your name
I could have dragged you in
Guilt by implication by association
I've always been true to you
In my own strange way
I've always been true to you
In my own sick way
I'll always stay true to you
